WATERY ARMS OF DEATH!

They Open to Receive a Mother and Her Three Children--A Heart-rending Scene.

PORT WASHINGTON, Wis., Dec. 12.—A terrible and peculiar drowning accident occurred yesterday, by which a mother and her three children were drowned at Saukville, on the Milwaukee river.

A six year old son of Claud Augustine went to the river bank and ventured out on the ice. It suddenly broke and he fell into the water. His mother heard his cries and rushed to his rescue. Frantically throwing herself into the icy waters she endeavored to save her drowning boy. In a few moments she was beyond her depth and drowning herself.

Her seventeen-year-old daughter, Augusta, heard the cries and hastened to the spot. Seeing her mother in the water she hastened to her rescue. The ice broke with her and she was thrown into the chilling torrent. Mother and daughter locked themselves together in a death struggle and sunk beneath the water and ice.

They were just disappearing when a four-year-old son of Mrs. Augustine, who had been with the sister, toddled out on the ice. With plaintive cries of "Mama, mama! I want you," he ran over the ice until he reached the hole in which his mother, his sister and his brother were buried.

The little fellow saw his mother and sister sink and threw himself as he supposed, into his mother's arms. In an instant he was carried beneath the ice, A man named Christian Nelson saw the tragedy, but was powerless to render any aid. He was on the rotten ice and broke in several times before he reached the spot where the family had been wiped out. When he finally got there they had disappeared. The body of Mrs. Augustine was recovered but the bodies of the children cannot be found.

LITTLE TICKS.

To-day's News as it Comes Over Our Own Wires.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 12.—Rev. Dr. Reilly, treasurer of the Irish National Land league, to-day cabled $15,000 to Dr. Kenny, treasurer of the Irish league, for the use of the tenants' defense fund. Dr. Rielly in an interview with the United Press, said: "The need of funds for the league was never more urgent. The Irish people are entering upon the last stages of their agitation."

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Dec. 12.—Bert Scheller, champion wrestler of the northwest, and Harry Everet, of this city, engaged in a wrestling match in this city last night. The style was catch as catch can, two best out of three. The men were unevenly matched, Scheller being at least twenty-five pounds heavier. Scheller won easy.

CHEYENNE, W. T., Dec. 12.—Kettle Jack's gang of horse and cattle thieves in the Big Horn valley, eleven in number, have been lynched by a party of settlers.

DODGEVILLE, Wis., Dec. 12.—A man captured here a month ago on suspicion of burglary, and sentenced to four months' imprisonment, is now believed to be "Cooney, the Fox," wanted in Chicago. The sheriff is in correspondence with the Chicago authories.

CAPTAIN RAWLES' SUCCESSOR.

Lieutenant Leonard Will Be Tendered the Honors.

The resignation of Frank Rawles, as captain of the Rifles, was mentioned in THE SENTINEL recently. The official document releasing him from all connection with that body has been forwarded to Governor Alvin P. Hovey.

The captain leaves his company only because duty calls him elsewhere. He is now in the pension department at Washington. Captain Rawles has been identified with every interest of the young military from the first; it was he who was chosen leader; it was he who pressed the boys to a glorious victory at the state encampment at Evansville, on which occasion they were bowed to all along the line and acknowledged to be the crack company of Indiana; and it was Captain Rawles who was loved if not revered by every person in the company, from private to first lieutenant. He was steadfast through thick and thin, kind, obliging and courteous—the secret of his popularity. Captain Rawles was as much at home with officers of the staff as he was among his own company. While it is a source of regret to realize that he has severed his official connection with the Rifles, every member of the same will unite in conveying to him their sincerest expressions for future prosperity.

It is said that Captain Rawles has at his disposal the acceptance of the captaincy of a company at the capitol. He is not only capable but so thoroughly versed in military tactics that as a commanding officer he would soon win admiration and respect from the men whom he drilled and the approbation of officers of superior rank.

The Rifles will soon elect a successor. It will no doubt be Mr. Ivers Leonard, of Supt. C. D. Law's office, who has so creditably filled the place of first lieutenant in the company. He is a thorough, and faithful young man, punctual and well informed in military matters.

He has been loyal to the interest of the Rifles from the first. The general sentiment of the company is to choose Mr. Leonard as Captain Rawles' successor, a place he is honorably entitled to.

It is not known whether he would accept the honor. If he does the popular reputation of the Rifles will be maintained.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC STRIKE

May Be Settled To-day--If Not, the Outlook is Serious.

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 12.—The strike of the Cascade division of the Northern Pacific railroad has not been settled, though a conference was held yesterday between a committee of strikers and Supt. H. M. Powwels at Ellensburg. The men are confident of winning the battle which has been on since last Sunday.

Not a single freight train has moved in or out of Tocoma since the strike began. A large quantity of valuable bonded freight is piled up on the side-tracks for a distance of 253 miles. The strike may possibly be settled to-day, if not, the out-look will be serious.

THIEVES WITH BRASS.

On Wednesday night thieves entered the Muncie shops and stole a lot of brass.

The officers have been notified and if the rascals are caught it will go hard with them. This thing has happened at these shops on several occasions, but now a strong effort will be made to discover and prosecute the guilty parties.

A Printer's Strike.

BERNE, Switzerland, Dec. 12.—The printers in this city have struck for better pay. Several papers were unable to issue their editions to-day.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—For Indiana—Warmer, fair, southerly winds, much lower temperature by Friday night.

The subject of Dr. McGlynn, who is to lecture in this city next Wednesday evening, is "How to Abolish Poverty." The Ottawa Journal in speaking of the lecture and his theme says: "A large audience greated him last evening. Dr. McGlynn is a fluent and delightful speaker. Outbursts of applause were frequent during the evening; a vein of delicious and irresistible humor cropped out often, and the audience laughed heartilly."

Mr. Charles F. Muhler, left for Pittsburg last night on business.

Surrounded by His Family the Bookseller Passes Peacefully Away.

August F. Siemon, the senior member of the firm of Siemon & Bro., died at 10 o'clock this morning.

This announcement was received on the streets to-day with surprise and universal sorrow.

The illness of Mr. Siemon for four months past has caused apprehension on the part of the attending physicians, Drs. A. J. Laubach, J. W. McCausland and A. P. Buchman, and not later than two weeks ago these professional gentlemen held a consultation, then for the first time expressing their grave doubts of his recovery to the family; but of this the public little knew. So when the doors of the large establishment of Siemon Bros. were dressed with crepe today the effect was strikingly sad.

Sometime last August Mr. Siemon was affected with a slight debility, which grew upon him, notwithstanding the fact that he was known as being an active, sturdy and healthy man in his growing old age.

His trouble developed into a malady, causing him, much against his inclination, to seek the bed. His illness continued to grow upon him, but on one occasion he rallied enough to visit his store, at which time a SENTINEL reporter was accosted with the usual outburst of good nature that was so peculiarly characteristic of himself—one among many.

Again compelled to succumb to the inevitable hold of his affliction, Mr. Siemon was again confined to his room and as destiny has willed, he never left it again.

In the demise of Mr. Siemon the community is bereft of a most noble character. As a fellow-citizen, whose interests were in no wise selfish, but who always lent by his purse and good will much encouragement in charitable and other ways, he was known far and near.

The deceased had eighteen brothers and sisters, of which are Rudolph, Carl F., sr., Mrs. Christian Tresselt, Mrs. Charles Tresselt, Mrs. Matilda Schwegmann and Mrs. Both, of this city, and five brothers in Germany.

Mr. Siemon was worth at least $50,000. He did not believe in insurance and therefore carried no policy.

The funeral will occur Sunday afternoon from St. Paul Lutheran church. Further announcement will be made.

The following is an accurate biography of his life;

A. F. Siemon, founder of the old and widely known house of Siemon & Brother, dealers in books and stationery, was born in Saxony, Germany, at the city of Ziesar, September 18, 1821. His father, August Ferdinand Siemon, a native of Saxony, was a prominent man, a merchant at Ziesar and postmaster and mayor of the city for a number of years. He died about 1860. His wife, whose maiden name was Caroline Grams, died in 1821, eight days after the birth of her son. Mr. Siemon received a good education in his native town, completing it at the college of Brandenburg. In 1849 he came to America and traveled directly to Fort Wayne, intending to study at Concordia college. After an attendance there of about a year, he entered the employ of Towley & Freeman, as a clerk, and subsequently held similar positions with W. T. Abbott and Towley & Brother. He founded his present business in 1858, and in 1861 admitted his brother Rudolph, as a partner when the firm became known as Siemon & Bro. In 1885 the interest of Rudolph was transferred to Mr. A. F. Siemon and the two sons Henry and Herman, were admitted as partners.

At their present place of business, 50 Calhoun street, they have one of the most commodious store rooms in the city, occupying the entire four floors of the building, which is in dimensions 20x170 feet, and they carry a complete stock of books, stationery, wall paper, pictures and frames, doing an annual average business of $50,000 to $60,000.

Mr. Siemon was one of the prominent men of Fort Wayne, a veteran in business and highly esteemed in all his relations with society. He was a devoted member of St. Paul's Lutheran church up to the time of his death and was trustee of the congregation for five years. He was married in 1854 to Lisetta Berning, of Hanover, Germany, who died in 1859, leaving two sons—Prof. Otto Siemon, of Concordia college, and Henry Siemon, of the firm. In 1861 he was married to Helen A. Strunk, who was born in Fort Wayne. By his last wife are three children—Herman T., of the firm; August W., of the Jacobs shoe store, and Miss Tillie Siemon.

HARRISON AND THE CATHOLICS

They Claim He Discriminates Against Them in His Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The senate committee on Indian affairs has not concluded consideration of the nomination of Thomas J. Morgan to be commissioner of Indian affairs, or Mr. Dorchester, superintendent of Indian schools.

A printed protest against his confirmation has been placed in the hands of individual senators on behalf of the Catholic church, claiming that they have discriminated against Catholics in the matter of appointments and removals.

A number of Grand Army posts also have protested against the confirmation of Morgan on the ground that his army record was bad. The committee on Indian affairs at the meeting to-day postponed action on these nominations till next week. The committee has not formally received protests against confimation, but it is understood that it will receive them.

The president to-day sent to the senate the nomination of Cyrus J. Frey, of South Dakota, to be marshal of the United States for the district of South Dakota, also a number of recess nominations, including Joel B. Erhardt, collector of customs at New York, and David W. McClung, collector of internal revenue of the first Ohio district.

CONGRESS.

In the house this morning, immediately after the reading of the journal, Mr. Butterworth offered a resolution setting forth the charges of complicity in the ballot box fraud made in the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette against members of the senate and house, and providing for the appointment by the speaker of a committee of five to investigate these charges. His resolution was adopted.

The special committee appointed to investigate the defalcation in the sergeant-at-arms' office made a partial report to the house, giving a detailed statement of the condition of the office December 5. The shortage is stated at $70,708.96. The committee believe many notes were forged to cover previous defalcations, and severely condemn the manner in which the sergeant-at-arms conducted the affairs of his office.

At 2 o'clock the house adjourned un-Monday.

At 1:35 p. m., the senate adjourned until Monday.

WRAPT IN FLAMES.

The Work of the Fire Demon at Different Points.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 12. — The three-story brick building, No. 234 West Pearl street, occupied by Hollingsworth & McClure, the enterprise variety works, dealing in brass, military and society goods, burned this morning. Loss, $18,000.

HOLYOKE, Mass., Dec. 12.—Thomas and John Dollens' coal sheds and boiler house, together with one hundred cords of wood, machinery, &c., were destroyed by fire last night; loss about $10,000 fully insured.

QUINCY, Ill., Dec. 12.—The cracker and candy factory of the Miller Bros. Cracker and Candy company caught fire at 11 o'clock, last night and was totally destroyed. The loss will reach over $50,000.

GENERAL GRANT.

Jefferson Davis' Opinion of the Hero of Appomattox.

BOSTON, Dec. 12.—When General Grant was dying at McGregor, the Boston Globe instructed its New Orleans correspondent to interview Jefferson Davis. Mr. Davis was not seen personally, but a few days later penned the following letter:

My Dear Sir:

Your request on behalf of a Boston journalist to prepare a criticism of General Grant's military career cannot be complied with for the following reasons:

First—General Grant is dying.

Second—Though he invaded our country with ruthless, it was with an open hand, and, as far as I know, abetted neither arson nor pillage, and since the war, I believe, has shown no malignity to confederates, either of the military or civil service. Therefore, instead of seeking to disturb the qiuet of his closing hours, I would, if it were in my power, contribute to the peace of his mind and comfort of his body.

(Signed) JEFFERSON DAVIS.

Mr. James Murdock, of Michigan City, Ind., is in the city. Mr. Murdock is one of the bondsmen for R. G. Kerlin, the contractor who laid the mains for the Salimonie company. The company refuse to accept Mr. Kerlin's contract complete until certain provisions are fulfilled.

A CLOUD BURST!

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—About half past 10 last night a cloud burst occurred in a mountain canon near Boulder Creek, Santa Cruz county, and a flood of water many feet high came roaring down the narrow valley. It carried along whole trees and logs and nothing stood before it.

Five houses, with their sleeping occupants, were swept away like egg shells. The people in the houses were in bed at the time and were taken completely by surprise. The first they knew of the disaster was when their houses were struck and carried away with everything else.

Joe Easton and his wife occupied one of the houses. They were in bed at the time. The people on the banks saw them swept down the torrent, clasped in each other's arms. The men ran down the stream in the hope of saving them. A quarter of a mile below the spot where the cottage had stood a cry for help was heard, and Mrs. Easton was found clinging to the bank. She had been struck by the drifting logs as she was swept down the stream. She was badly bruised, and had been completely stripped of her night clothes. She is nearly fifty years years old, and the shock may prove fatal, but it is believed she will recover.

She said that as she and her husband were swept down together a great log struck him and separated them. She did not see him again. Easton's body was found in a pile of drift, about a half mile down the stream.

A man and wife named Francis, who lived in one of the other cottages, had a narrow escape. When they realized their danger the water was rushing past their house six feet deep. They saw that the house would not stand, and sprang through a window into the water. After great exertions they succeeded in reaching the bank. There were several other narrow escapes, but although all in the house were badly bruised, no one except Easton was lost.

A HOOSIER CYCLONE.

CAMBRIDGE CITY, Ind., Dec. 12.—Tuesday night a cyclone, accompanied with rain in torrents and vivid lightning, visited this vicinity. It covered an area of one-half by four miles and came from the southwest. John Viecy's barn was unroofed, as were also the residence and barn of Cyrus Coffin. He was in an out house, which was carried some distance. He extricated himself and saved his life by clinging to a tree. Sam Watson's two-story house and out buildings are badly wrecked. The velocity of the wind was such as to drive a board through the siding of the Watson residence.

UNEARTHED TREASURE.

A Pot of Gold Dust Found After Being Buried Forty Years.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Dec. 12.—A. R. and P. E. Torey, of Charleston, S. C., yesterday unearthed a copper pot containing $6,000 worth of gold dust. It was buried there by Henry Hopkins, an uncle, who brought it back from California with him in 1846. He was attacked by thieves in Plattsmouth, but managed to bury the dust, but he afterward disappeared and is supposed to have been murdered.

His brother came to Plattsmouth in 1866 and made a vain search for the treasure. The Torey brothers recently found a letter among their mother's effects letters about the burial of the gold and came to Plattsmouth about two week's ago.

IS DeVAUX A DOCTOR?

Yesterday Deputy County Clerk J. J. Kern issued to Edward F. DeVaux a license to practice medicine in Allen county and the applicant hastened immediately to prepare an office in Miller's drug store on Lafayette street.

The applicant represented that by reason of his attendance at lectures in the Fort Wayne Medical college he was entitled to practice, under the "three year law" and he exhibited a matriculation ticket.

This was regular enough so long as witnesses were at hand to make affidavit. These DeVaux soon found in the persons of Louis W. Moring and Henry Galland.

Now comes the startling disclosure from Dr. C. B. Stemen, who has been dean of the Medical college for ten years past, and also from Prof. W. W. Barnett, of the same institution, that DeVaux paid $5 and was given a matriculation ticket; that he did not attend the lectures and that the young man is no more eligible to a physician's certificate than THE SENTINEL reporter would be.

DeVaux was an applicant for a license to practice medicine, surgery and obstetrics under the provisions of an act entitled, "An act regulating the practice of medicine, surgery and obsetrics, etc.," approved April 11, 1885, which makes it necessary to have either practiced medicine, surgery and obstetrics in the state of Indiana three years or attended a full course of lectures at a reputable medical college. Devaux claims to have attended lectures in the fall of 1880.

He is credited with being a clever and honest young man.

He is evidently misled and ignorant, or is practicing a dangerous game. He will be asked to explain.

GATHERING HIS NEW FLOCK.

The meeting will be held Sunday evening, at Library hall. The purpose is to begin active arrangements for the erection in early spring of a new church, probably to be located at the corner of DeWald and Webster streets, where property was recently purchased.

THURSDAY, DEC. 12, 1889.

THE senatorial fight in Ohio grows interesting.

THE dead-lock in the Montana legislature continues.

YESTERDAY was the seventy-third anniversary of Indiana's admission into the union.

IN the past five days Colonel Zollinger, at Indianapolis, has paid 40,008 pensioners the sum of $1,379,989.14.

ATTORNEY FORREST, of the Cronin murder case, is long winded. The delivery of his speech occupied three and a half days.

THE federal assembly has elected M. Loais Reichonnet, of the canton of Vaud, president, and Dr. E. Welti, of the canton of Aargau, vice president of the republic of Switzerland for the year 1890.

THE Australian ballot system is making sure progress in this country. Massachusetts was the first state to adopt, it Connecticut the second, Minnesota next, Little Rhody fourth in order. Other states are considering its merits.

THE confederation of the Farmers' union and K. of L. order brings nearly three millions of men into one organization. If other bodies of organized labor, to which overtures have been made, shall join them, their numbers will be augmented another half million.

INDIANA to-day is the sixth state in the Union in size, population and natural wealth; the first in public school facilities; the first in amount of wheat produced; the first in natural gas area; fifth in the production of bituminous coal, and it has the best building stone in the world, and produces more than any of the other forty-two states except four.

WITH the death and burial of Jefferson Davis, the ex-president of the so-called southern confederacy, disappears to a great extent, the southern question in politics. The lapse of over a quarter of a century since the close of the war and the death of most of the great leaders in that memorable struggle in the south, should break down the barriers of sectional hate engendered by it.

COMMON COUNCIL.

BARRETT LEAVES THE STAGE.

His Throat Malady Compels Him to Retire, Perhaps Permanently.

The Cleveland Plain-Dealer of Sunday says: "Lawrence Barrett canceled his engagement at the Euclid Avenue opera house this week on the imperative order of his physician. The swelling in his neck, which was noticeable when he was here before, has greatly enlarged. It is said to be due to something in the nature of tumors in the glands of the throat, brought on by puffing out his neck by holding his breath in acting certain roles. It is an affection which does not yield to any treatment except the knife, and the chance of recovery from such an operation is said to be one in 100. Therefore, it may be that his retiring from the stage is permanent. During the past fortnight he played in Washington, and it was with great difficulty that he finished the last week."

Amusements.

Imre Kiralfy's reputation for putting on good spectaculars was substantially exemplified in the elaborate production of "Lagardere" at the Temple last night. Of the play, the scenic features, and the costumes there can be but one decision—they meet favor with the artistic and popular taste. The ballets are original and beyond reasonable limit of criticism. The scenes are numerous, including several realistic works of art. Maurice F. Drew, as "Lagardere, the Hunchback of Paris," in the leading role, acted his part well and was ably supported. Should this attraction again favor Fort Wayne with a visit, another large audience will be assured.

BOSTONIAN PHILOSOPHY.

The New Orleans Picayune declares that the Bostonian is a philosopher from the cradle.

A night or two ago a Boston street matron had occasion to reprove her little boy, aged six and a half years—for some unusually mischevious nonsense.

"I'm afraid," she said, "that you will not go to heaven."

"I'm sorry," said the young criminal, "but I've been to the circus and a party this week, don't you know, and of course one can't take in everything."

For a long time past this youthful thinker has been putting pennies in a toy savings bank for the benefit of the little negro children of the Congo basin. And the other day his mother caught him in the act of painting his baby sister black all over with ladies' shoe polish. He was just putting on the final touches when the mater familias entered.

Said he: "Mamma, we have given so much money to the black people that I thought we might as well keep it in the family. So I have fixed up the kid to suit. Put a nickel in the slot and hear it squeal.

A YOUNG ELDER.

One day, a good many years ago, a young elder, making his first appearance in the Glasgow Presbytery modestly sat down on the very edge of a bench near the door. By and by the minister, who had been sitting on the other end, rose, and the young elder was just falling off, when the door opened and Doctor Gillan, of Inchinnan, entered, and catching him in his arms, said, with his usual readiness,—

"Sir, when you come to this place, you must try and stick to the forms of the church."

GAVE HIMSELF UP.

A Fugitive Criminal From Scotland Confesses His Crime.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 11.—A man giving the name of Thomas Souter, solicitor, Blairgowen, Scotland, appeared at the city jail last evening, and gave himself up, stating that he was an absconder from Scotland. According to his story, he was solicitor for several local bodies in the town of Blairgownen, and by negligence in attending to business and want of method, he became short in his accounts.

Fearing exposure and disgrace he fled to this country and went to San Francisco and had been there ever since until he came here. His money is all gone and for several nights he wandered about the street having no place to rest. As far as he knows no warrant has been issued for his arrest, but if there has he is ready to go back to Scotland. He was given a comfortable cell in the jail. He is about forty years of age.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

TOBACCO-HEART.

According to a recent paper read by Prof. Adolph Zieber before the German Medical congress, the excessive use of tobacco produces certain diseases as sure as a hot iron will produce a burn.

According to Dr. Zieber, who is not an anti-tobacco crank (using the weed in moderation himself), the effect of tobacco on any 100 men is about as follows: On 20 per cent. a rank poison, and should never be used in any form, producing on such men neuralgic spasm of the heart, weak action, fainting, dizzy spells, confusion of mind, dyspepsia, etc., etc.; on 30 per cent.; nervousness, palpitation of the heart, giddiness, dyspepsia, etc.; on 20 per cent., dyspepsia and heartburn; and in 10 per cent., no evil and some goods effects.

His research and experiments prove that excess in tobacco produces thousands of cases of heart disease, makes multitudes of dyspeptics, causes many sudden deaths from Neuralgic Spasm and faintness of the heart (Angina Pectoris), produces cancer of the mouth, throat and tongue, extreme nervous exhaustion and bloodlessness of the brain and spine, cancer of the stomach and bowels and abcess of the liver.

ROGERS' ROYAL NERVINE is a peculiarly effective antidote to poisoning by nicotine, besides being a direct and distinct curative of those diseases produced by excess in tobacco. It has saved many a young cigarette smoker's life. Tobacco produces dyspepsia, R. R. N. cures it. Tobacco produces anaemina or bloodlessness of the brain, faint spells, giddiness on stooping, spasm of the heart, weak pulse, headache, neuralgia of the heart, etc., etc, ROGERS' ROYAL NERVINE cures or counteracts all of these.

If you are a heavy smoker, reader, and can't or won't quit, even with the cancer of Gen'l Grant, the Crown Prince of Germany and hundreds of others staring you in the face, at least use an antidote. It will do you no harm certainly, and may, very probably will, save you your life.

Feel your pulse and see if it is as strong, bounding and robust as it should be without tobacco.

A NEW TREATMENT.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been discovered which permanently cures the most aggravated cases of these distressing diseases by a few simple applications made (two weeks apart) by the patient at home. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent free by A. H. DIXON & SON, 337 and 339 West King Street, Toronto, Canada.

AN IRON-CLAD TICKET.

A committee of three, consisting of Messrs. A. H. Hansom, W. A. Thrall and J. N. Abbott, has for some days past been considering at Chicago a new form of iron-clad excursion ticket.

The ticket differs from other iron-clad tickets in the "advice stub." This is a stub on which the party purchasing the ticket signs his or her name, as the case may be, at the time of purchase. This stub is sent by the first mail by the ticket agent selling the ticket to the depot ticket agent at the station to which the ticket is issued.

The holder of the ticket gives his name, the ticket agent brings out his advice stub with the signature obtained from the original purchaser covered up so that it cannot be seen, and the holder of the ticket is requested to sign. After he signs the ticket agent unfolds the stub, and, if the signatures are the same, the ticket is made good for the return trip on the train just about to leave. If the signatures are different the ticket is taken up by the agent and is of no value.

The Michigan Central has had great success with this ticket.

Lew F. Lombard, machinist at the Olds wheel works, is on the sick list.

The Pittsburg car shops have received a new order for building eighty-three box cars.

William Shaffer, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, is off duty on account of sickness.

Jackson Zimmerman, of White's wheel works, has been on the sick list for a few days.

The finishing department at the Olds wheel works is closed down for a few days on account of repairs.

Henry Schomber, carpenter at East Pittsburg yards, cut his thumb yesterday with a hatchet while at work.

Walter A. Fensom, formerly, of the Fensom Elevator works at Toronto, Canada, has taken a position with the Jenney.

August Hilker, of the Kerr Murray works, has just completed the work of a gas plant at Delaware, Ohio, and returned home.

John Connors, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, who was injured Thanksgiving day by falling on the side walk, is still off duty from his injuries.

Julius Kock, of the Pennsylvania company, informs us that THE SENTINEL erred last evening in stating that his wife was dead. The lady whose death was chronicled was the wife of his brother.

The Pennsylvania people have a genuine freight blockade and have asked western connections to hold back a little. There are miles of cars at Pittsburg and east of there standing on side-tracks. It is thought that a few days will bring relief.

Nellie Huston, thirteen years old, living with her parents at Chicago, was run down and killed in that city Tuesday night by a south-bound Wabash passenger train. She was on her way home, and tried to cross the tracks in front of the train. She was horribly mangled.

Wm. F. Base, machinist at the Olds wheel works, while cleaning one of the rooms at that establishment, came across what he supposed was a keg of powder, but which was only loose emery. He looked in the open keg, however, and as his eyes lit on the stuff he became freightened and went out and got rid of all the matches in his pockets. He is still engaged in trying to determine what use the works have for gunpowder.

Holden Spink, a popular and well known conductor on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad, died from injuries last Tuesday night. Mr. Spink has been in the employ of the Grand Rapids and Indiana about seven years, and was held in high esteem by the officers of the company and all his associates. He resided in Grand Rapids but had no family or other relatives dependent upon him for support. His wife and only child died about three years ago.

Receiver Carrothers, of the American Midland railroad, has issued an order removing Mr. C. N. Haskell from the position of general manager of the road and Mr. Haskell is no longer connected with the line which he built. The same order announces the abolition of the office of superintendent, thus displacing T. B. Sargeant. The position of superintendent of motive power has been abolished and Wilbur Rogers, of Toledo, has been appointed to take the place of James A. Phelps as auditor. Charles T. Lewis, of Toledo, has been named as general counsel.

The proposition to donate $10,000 to the Wabash Railroad company in consideration of the company making connections with their main line in Logansport, Ind., was voted upon in that city yesterday. The proposition was carried by almost a unanimous vote, there being less than 100 votes in the negative.

CANNOT RECOVER LAND.

No Grounds For Mrs. Willhoite's Suit to Recover Indian Lands.

The death of John LaFontaine, grandson of Francis LaFonaine, the late and last chief of the Miami tribe of Indians, opens the history of a once-contemplated litigation by Mrs. Mary Willhoite, wife of Dr. Willhoite, of Fontana, Kan. Mrs. Willhoite's first husband was Louis LaFontaine, son of Chief LaFontaine, and her maiden name was Mary Bordeau.

She claims an interest in seven sections of land in Grant, Wabash, Miami and Cass counties, and she claims it as the heir of Louis LaFontaine. A gentleman who is conversant with the matter, and from whom this information is obtained, says that if she have any claim at all in any of these lands she must bring suit as the heir of John B. Richardville, and if she brings suit as the heir of Richardville, she will find the woods full of claimants on equally as tenable grounds as hers. Francis LaFontaine never had any interest in the lands to which Mrs. Willhoite lays claim, and if she be an heir at all she must be an heir of Francis LaFontaine. Anyhow, state and national litigation will bar any action she can bring. The late Rev. Father Julian Benoit, of Fort Wayne, was chosen executor of the LaFontaine estate, and John Roche, Esq., of Huntington, appointed a guardian of the minor LaFontaine heirs, by the Huntington circuit court. Mr. Roche has heard of no such suit, as several newspapers have mentioned.

Should Stretch Hemp.

ATOKI, A. T., Dec. 11.—At Rock Point, eighteen miles west of here, two cotton pickers shot and crippled for life young Lullie Jones, with whom they were working at the time. They proposed to young Jones that he should take care of the dogs while they robbed his brother, and when Jones refused they shot him. They were arrested.

Rheumatism

is undoubtedly caused by lactic acid in the blood. This acid attacks the fibrous tissues, and causes the pains and aches in the back, shoulders, knees, ankles, hips, and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

Miss Cottom was stamp clerk under Deputy Collector Andy McIntosh, of Salem, and is the daughter of Charles Cottom, the well-known city editor of the New Albany Ledger. Her card indicates that she has scooped the dozen or so male applicants for the position, who are still in blissful ignorance that it is filled by a lady.

WATERY ARMS OF DEATH!

They Open to Receive a Mother and Her Three Children—A Heart-rending Scene.

PORT WASHINGTON, Wis., Dec. 12.—A terrible and peculiar drowning accident occurred yesterday, by which a mother and her three children were drowned at Saukville, on the Milwaukee river.

A six year old son of Claud Augustine went to the river bank and ventured out on the ice. It suddenly broke and he fell into the water. His mother heard his cries and rushed to his rescue. Frantically throwing herself into the icy waters she endeavored to save her drowning boy. In a few moments she was beyond her depth and drowning herself.

Her seventeen-year-old daughter, Augusta, heard the cries and hastened to the spot. Seeing her mother in the water she hastened to her rescue. The ice broke with her and she was thrown into the chilling torrent. Mother and daughter locked themselves together in a death struggle and sunk beneath the water and ice.

They were just disappearing when a four-year-old son of Mrs. Augustine, who had been with the sister, toddled out on the ice. With plaintive cries of "Mama, mama! I want you," he ran over the ice until he reached the hole in which his mother, his sister and his brother were buried.

The little fellow saw his mother and sister sink and threw himself as he supposed, into his mother's arms. In an instant he was carried beneath the ice. A man named Christian Nelson saw the tragedy, but was powerless to render any aid. He was on the rotten ice and broke in several times before he reached the spot where the family had been wiped out. When he finally got there they had disappeared. The body of Mrs. Augustine was recovered but the bodies of the children cannot be found.

CAPTAIN RAWLES' SUCCESSOR.

Lieutenant Leonard Will Be Tendered the Honors.

The resignation of Frank Rawles, as captain of the Rifles, was mentioned in THE SENTINEL recently. The official document releasing him from all connection with that body has been forwarded to Governor Alvin P. Hovey.

The captain leaves his company only because duty calls him elsewhere. He is now in the pension department at Washington. Captain Rawles has been identified with every interest of the young military from the first; it was he who was chosen leader; it was he who pressed the boys to a glorious victory at the state encampment at Evansville, on which occasion they were bowed to all along the line and acknowledged to be the crack company of Indiana; and it was Captain Rawles who was loved if not revered by every person in the company, from private to first lieutenant. He was steadfast through thick and thin, kind, obliging and courteous—the secret of his popularity. Captain Rawles was as much at home with officers of the staff as he was among his own company. While it is a source of regret to realize that he has severed his official connection with the Rifles, every member of the same will unite in conveying to him their sincerest expressions for future prosperity.

It is said that Captain Rawles has at his disposal the acceptance of the captaincy of a company at the capitol. He is not only capable but so thoroughly versed in military tactics that as a commanding officer he would soon win admiration and respect from the men whom he drilled and the approbation of officers of superior rank.

The Rifles will soon elect a successor. It will no doubt be Mr. Ivers Leonard, of Supt. C. D. Law's office, who has so creditably filled the place of first lieutenant in the company. He is a thorough, and faithful young man, punctual and well informed in military matters.

He has been loyal to the interest of the Rifles from the first. The general sentiment of the company is to choose Mr. Leonard as Captain Rawles' successor, a place he is honorably entitled to.

It is not known whether he would accept the honor. If he does the popular reputation of the Rifles will be maintained.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC STRIKE

May Be Settled To-day—If Not, the Outlook is Serious.

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 12.—The strike of the Cascade division of the Northern Pacific railroad has not been settled, though a conference was held yesterday between a committee of strikers and Supt. H. M. Powwels at Ellensburg. The men are confident of winning the battle which has been on since last Sunday.

Not a single freight train has moved in or out of Tocoma since the strike began. A large quantity of valuable bonded freight is piled up on the sidetracks for a distance of 253 miles. The strike may possibly be settled to-day, if not, the out-look will be serious.

Outbursts of applause were frequent during the evening; a vein of delicious and irresistible humor cropped out often, and the audience laughed heartily."

Mr. Charles F. Muhler, left for Pittsburg last night on business.

Surrounded by His Family the Bookseller Passes Peacefully Away.

August F. Siemon, the senior member of the firm of Siemon & Bro., died at 10 o'clock this morning.

This announcement was received on the streets to-day with surprise and universal sorrow.

The illness of Mr. Siemon for four months past has caused apprehension on the part of the attending physicians, Drs. A. J. Laubach, J. W. McCausland and A. P. Buchman, and not later than two weeks ago these professional gentlemen held a consultation, then for the first time expressing their grave doubts of his recovery to the family; but of this the public little knew. So when the doors of the large establishment of Siemon Bros. were dressed with crepe to-day the effect was strikingly sad.

Sometime last August Mr. Siemon was affected with a slight debility, which grew upon him, notwithstanding the fact that he was known as being an active, sturdy and healthy man in his growing old age.

His trouble developed into a malady, causing him, much against his inclination, to seek the bed. His illness continued to grow upon him, but on one occasion he rallied enough to visit his store, at which time a SENTINEL reporter was accosted with the usual outburst of good nature that was so peculiarly characteristic of himself—one among many.

Again compelled to succumb to the inevitable hold of his affliction, Mr. Siemon was again confined to his room and as destiny has willed, he never left it again.

In the demise of Mr. Siemon the community is bereft of a most noble character. As a fellow-citizen, whose interests were in no wise selfish, but who always lent by his purse and good will much encouragement in charitable and other ways, he was known far and near.

The deceased had eighteen brothers and sisters, of which are Rudolph, Carl F., sr., Mrs. Christian Tresselt, Mrs. Charles Tresselt, Mrs. Matilda Schwegmann and Mrs. Both, of this city, and five brothers in Germany.

Mr. Siemon was worth at least $50,000. He did not believe in insurance and therefore carried no policy.

The funeral will occur Sunday afternoon from St. Paul Lutheran church. Further announcement will be made.

The following is an accurate biography of his life;

A. F. Siemon, founder of the old and widely known house of Siemon & Brother, dealers in books and stationery, was born in Saxony, Germany, at the city of Ziesar, September 18, 1821. His father, August Ferdinand Siemon, a native of Saxony, was a prominent man, a merchant at Ziesar and postmaster and mayor of the city for a number of years. He died about 1860. His wife, whose maiden name was Caroline Grams, died in 1821, eight days after the birth of her son. Mr. Siemon received a good education in his native town, completing it at the college of Brandenburg. In 1849 he came to America and traveled directly to Fort Wayne, intending to study at Concordia college. After an attendance there of about a year, he entered the employ of Towley & Freeman, as a clerk, and subsequently held similar positions with W. T. Abbott and Towley & Brother. He founded his present business in 1858, and in 1861 admitted his brother Rudolph, as a partner when the firm became known as Siemon & Bro. In 1885 the interest of Rudolph was transferred to Mr. A. F. Siemon and the two sons Henry and Herman, were admitted as partners.

At their present place of business, 50 Calhoun street, they have one of the most commodious store rooms in the city, occupying the entire four floors of the building, which is in dimensions 20x170 feet, and they carry a complete stock of books, stationery, wall paper, pictures and frames, doing an annual average business of $50,000 to $60,000.

Mr. Siemon was one of the prominent men of Fort Wayne, a veteran in business and highly esteemed in all his relations with society. He was a devoted member of St. Paul's Lutheran church up to the time of his death and was trustee of the congregation for five years. He was married in 1854 to Lisetta Borning, of Hanover, Germany, who died in 1859, leaving two sons—Prof. Otto Siemon, of Concordia college, and Henry Siemon, of the firm. In 1861 he was married to Helen A. Strunk, who was born in Fort Wayne. By his last wife are three children—Herman T., of the firm; August W., of the Jacobs shoe store, and Miss Tillie Siemon.

HARRISON AND THE CATHOLICS

They Claim He Discriminates Against Them in His Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The senate committee on Indian affairs has not concluded consideration of the nomination of Thomas J. Morgan to be commissioner of Indian affairs, or Mr. Dorchester, superintendent of Indian schools.

A printed protest against his confirmation has been placed in the hands of individual senators on behalf of the Catholic church, claiming that they have discriminated against Catholics in the matter of appointments and removals

A number of Grand Army posts also have protested against the confirmation of Morgan on the ground that his army record was bad. The committee on Indian affairs at the meeting to-day postponed action on these nominations till next week. The committee has not formally received protests against confimation, but it is understood that it will receive them.

The president to-day sent to the senate the nomination of Cyrus J. Frey, of South Dakota, to be marshal of the United States for the district of South Dakota, also a number of recess nominations, including Joel B. Erhardt, collector of customs at New York, and David W. McClung, collector of internal revenue of the first Ohio district.

CONGRESS.

In the house this morning, immediately after the reading of the journal, Mr. Butterworth offered a resolution setting forth the charges of complicity in the ballot box fraud made in the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette against members of the senate and house, and providing for the appointment by the speaker of a committee of five to investigate these charges. His resolution was adopted.

The special committee appointed to investigate the defalcation in the sergeant-at-arms' office made a partial report to the house, giving a detailed statement of the condition of the office December 5. The shortage is stated at $70,708.96. The committee believe many notes were forged to cover previous defalcations, and severely condemn the manner in which the sergeant-at-arms conducted the affairs of his office.

At 2 o'clock the house adjourned until Monday.

At 1:35 p. m., the senate adjourned until Monday.

WRAPT IN FLAMES.

The Work of the Fire Demon at Different Points.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 12.—The three-story brick building, No. 231 West Pearl street, occupied by Hollingsworth & McClure, the enterprise variety works, dealing in brass, military and society goods, burned this morning. Loss, $18,000.

QUINCY, Ill., Dec. 12.—The cracker and candy factory of the Miller Bros. Cracker and Candy company caught fire at 11 o'clock, last night and was totally destroyed. The loss will reach over $50,000.

GENERAL GRANT.

Jefferson Davis' Opinion of the Hero of Appomattox.

BOSTON, Dec. 12.—When General Grant was dying at McGregor, the Boston Globe instructed its New Orleans correspondent to interview Jefferson Davis. Mr. Davis was not seen personally, but a few days later penned the following letter:

My Dear Sir.

First—General Grant is dying.

Second—Though he invaded our country with ruthless, it was with an open hand, and, as far as I know, abetted neither arson nor pillage, and since the war, I believe, has shown no malignity to confederates, either of the military or civil service. Therefore, instead of seeking to disturb the quiet of his closing hours, I would, if it were in my power, contribute to the peace of his mind and comfort of his body.

Signed)

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

Mr. James Murdock, of Michigan City, Ind., is in the city. Mr. Murdock is one of the bondsmen for R. G. Kerlin, the contractor who laid the mains for the Salimonie company. The company refuse to accept Mr. Kerlin's contract complete until certain provisions are fulfilled.

A CLOUD BURST!

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—About half past 10 last night a cloud burst occurred in a mountain canon near Boulder Creek, Santa Cruz county, and a flood of water many feet high came roaring down the narrow valley. It carried along whole trees and logs and nothing stood before it.

Five houses, with their sleeping occupants, were swept away like egg shells. The people in the houses were in bed at the time and were taken completely by surprise. The first they knew of the disaster was when their houses were struck and carried away with everything else.

Joe Easton and his wife occupied one of the houses. They were in bed at the time. The people on the banks saw them swept down the torrent, clasped in each other's arms. The men ran down the stream in the hope of saving them. A quarter of a mile below the spot where the cottage had stood a cry for help was heard, and Mrs. Easton was found clinging to the bank. She had been struck by the drifting logs as she was swept down the stream. She was badly bruised, and had been completely stripped of her night clothes. She is nearly fifty years years old, and the shock may prove fatal, but it is believed she will recover.

She said that as she and her husband were swept down together a great log struck him and separated them. She did not see him again. Easton's body was found in a pile of drift, about a half mile down the stream.

A man and wife named Francis, who lived in one of the other cottages, had a narrow escape. When they realized their danger the water was rushing past their house six feet deep. They saw that the house would not stand, and sprang through a window into the water. After great exertions they succeeded in reaching the bank. There were several other narrow escapes, but although all in the house were badly bruised, no one except Easton was lost.

A HOOSIER CYCLONE.

CAMBRIDGE CITY, Ind., Dec. 12.—Tuesday night a cyclone, accompanied with rain in torrents and vivid lightning, visited this vicinity. It covered an area of one-half by four miles and came from the southwest. John Vicey's barn was unroofed, as were also the residence and barn of Cyrus Coffin. He was in an out house, which was carried some distance. He extricated himself and saved his life by clinging to a tree. Sam Watson's two-story house and out buildings are badly wrecked. The velocity of the wind was such as to drive a board through the siding of the Watson residence.

UNEARTHED TREASURE.

A Pot of Gold Dust Found After Being Buried Forty Years.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Dec. 12.—A. R. and P. E. Torey, of Charleston, S. C., yesterday unearthed a copper pot containing $6,000 worth of gold dust. It was buried there by Henry Hopkins, an uncle, who brought it back from California with him in 1846. He was attacked by thieves in Plattsmouth, but managed to bury the dust, but he afterward disappeared and is supposed to have been murdered.

His brother came to Plattsmouth in 1866 and made a vain search for the treasure. The Torey brothers recently found a letter among their mother's effects letters about the burial of the gold and came to Plattsmouth about two week's ago.

IS DeVAUX A DOCTOR?

Yesterday Deputy County Clerk J. J. Kern issued to Edward F. DeVaux a license to practice medicine in Allen county and the applicant hastened immediately to prepare an office in Miller's drug store on Lafayette street.

The applicant represented that by reason of his attendance at lectures in the Fort Wayne Medical college he was entitled to practice, under the "three year law" and he exhibited a matriculation ticket.

This was regular enough so long as witnesses were at hand to make affidavit. These DeVaux soon found in the persons of Louis W. Moring and Henry Galland.

Now comes the startling disclosure from Dr. C. B. Stemen, who has been dean of the Medical college for ten years past, and also from Prof. W. W. Barnett, of the same institution, that DeVaux paid $5 and was given a matriculation ticket; that he did not attend the lectures and that the young man is no more eligible to a physician's certificate than THE SENTINEL reporter would be.

DeVaux was an applicant for a license to practice medicine, surgery and obstetrics under the provisions of an act entitled, "An act regulating the practice of medicine, surgery and obsetrics, etc.," approved April 11, 1885, which makes it necessary to have either practiced medicine, surgery and obstetrics in the state of Indiana three years or attended a full course of lectures at a reputable medical college. Devaux claims to have attended lectures in the fall of 1880.

He is credited with being a clever and honest young man.

He is evidently misled and ignorant, or is practicing a dangerous game. He will be asked to explain.

GATHERING HIS NEW FLOCK.

Rev. Father Delaney to Meet His St. Patrick's Congregation.

Rev. Father Delaney, who was appointed to the new charge, south of the railroad, to be known as the St. Patrick's congregation, has called a meeting of the Catholics who are in his territory. The meeting will be held Sunday evening, at Library hall. The purpose is to begin active arrangements for the erection in early spring of a new church, probably to be located at the corner of DeWald and Webster streets, where property was recently purchased.

Police Pickings.

Mayor Harding had another morally wrecked audience to-day:

Henry Lauer, arrested by Officer John O'Connell, on Gay street.

Ed. Phillips, arrested by Officer Wahrenburg, on Berry street.

Henry Lueing, arrested by Officer Wahrenburg, on Clinton street.

John Kelley, of East Wayne street, arrested by Officer Wahrenburg, on Wayne street.

Frank Hogan, arrested by Officer Wahrenburg on Main street.

David Ervin, arrested by Officer Kneally on Harrison street.

The charge against each was intoxication. Kelley's father stayed the docket and Frank Hogan paid $10.50. The balance were given a ride in the patrol wagon and now have apartments at the county jail.

THURSDAY, DEC. 12, 1889.

The senatorial fight in Ohio grows interesting.

The dead-lock in the Montana legislature continues.

Yesterday was the seventy-third anniversary of Indiana's admission into the union.

In the past five days Colonel Zollinger, at Indianapolis, has paid 40,008 pensioners the sum of $1,379,989.14.

Attorney Forrest, of the Cronin murder case, is long winded. The delivery of his speech occupied three and a half days.

The federal assembly has elected M. Louis Reichonnet, of the canton of Vaud, president, and Dr. E. Welti, of the canton of Aargau, vice president of the republic of Switzerland for the year 1890.

The Australian ballot system is making sure progress in this country. Massachusetts was the first state to adopt, it Connecticut the second, Minnesota next, Little Rhody fourth in order. Other states are considering its merits.

The confederation of the Farmers' union and K. of L. order brings nearly three millions of men into one organization. If other bodies of organized labor, to which overtures have been made, shall join them, their numbers will be augmented another half million.

Indiana to-day is the sixth state in the Union in size, population and natural wealth; the first in public school facilities; the first in amount of wheat produced; the first in natural gas area; fifth in the production of bituminous coal, and it has the best building stone in the world, and produces more than any of the other forty-two states except four.

With the death and burial of Jefferson Davis, the ex-president of the so-called southern confederacy, disappears to a great extent, the southern question in politics. The lapse of over a quarter of a century since the close of the war and the death of most of the great leaders in that memorable struggle in the south, should break down the barriers of sectional hate engendered by it.

BARRETT LEAVES THE STAGE.

His Throat Malady Compels Him to Retire, Perhaps Permanently.

The Cleveland Plain-Dealer of Sunday says: "Lawrence Barrett canceled his engagement at the Euclid Avenue opera house this week on the imperative order of his physician. The swelling in his neck, which was noticeable when he was here before, has greatly enlarged. It is said to be due to something in the nature of tumors in the glands of the throat, brought on by puffing out his neck by holding his breath in acting certain roles. It is an affection which does not yield to any treatment except the knife, and the chance of recovery from such an operation is said to be one in 100. Therefore, it may be that his retiring from the stage is permanent. During the past fortnight he played in Washington, and it was with great difficulty that he finished the last week."

Amusements.

Imre Kiralfy's reputation for putting on good spectaculars was substantially exemplified in the elaborate production of "Lagardere" at the Temple last night. Of the play, the scenic features, and the costumes there can be but one decision—they meet favor with the artistic and popular taste. The ballets are original and beyond reasonable limit of criticism. The scenes are numerous, including several realistic works of art. Maurice F. Drew, as "Lagardere, the Hunchback of Paris," in the leading role, acted his part well and was ably supported. Should this attraction again favor Fort Wayne with a visit, another large audience will be assured.

BOSTONIAN PHILOSOPHY.

The New Orleans Picayune declares that the Bostonian is a philosopher from the cradle.

A night or two ago a Boston street matron had occasion to reprove her little boy, aged six and a half years—for some unusually mischevious nonsense.

"I'm afraid," she said, "that you will not go to heaven."

"I'm sorry," said the young criminal, "but I've been to the circus and a party this week, don't you know, and of course one can't take in everything."

For a long time past this youthful thinker has been putting pennies in a toy savings bank for the benefit of the little negro children of the Congo basin. And the other day his mother caught him in the act of painting his baby sister black all over with ladies' shoe polish. He was just putting on the final touches when the mater familias entered.

Said he: "Mamma, we have given so much money to the black people that I thought we might as well keep it in the family. So I have fixed up the kid to suit. Put a nickel in the slot and hear it squeal.

A YOUNG ELDER.

One day, a good many years ago, a young elder, making his first appearance in the Glasgow Presbytery modestly sat down on the very edge of a bench near the door. By and by the minister, who had been sitting on the other end, rose, and the young elder was just falling off, when the door opened and Doctor Gillan, of Inchinnan, entered, and catching him in his arms, said, with his usual readiness,—

"Sir, when you come to this place, you must try and stick to the forms of the church."

GAVE HIMSELF UP.

A Fugitive Criminal From Scotland Confesses His Crime.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 11.—A man giving the name of Thomas Souter, solicitor, Blairgowen, Scotland, appeared at the city jail last evening, and gave himself up, stating that he was an absconder from Scotland. According to his story, he was solicitor for several local bodies in the town of Blairgownen, and by negligence in attending to business and want of method, he became short in his accounts.

Fearing exposure and disgrace he fled to this country and went to San Francisco and had been there ever since until he came here. His money is all gone and for several nights he wandered about the street having no place to rest. As far as he knows no warrant has been issued for his arrest, but if there has he is ready to go back to Scotland. He was given a comfortable cell in the jail. He is about forty years of age.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, is indeed wonderful. Cheap John houses are trying to Imitate

TOBACCO-HEART.

Some Unpleasant Truths for Hard Smokers and Users of the Weed.

According to a recent paper read by Prof. Adolph Zieber before the German Medical congress, the excessive use of tobacco produces certain diseases as sure as a hot iron will produce a burn.

According to Dr. Zieber, who is not an anti-tobacco crank (using the weed in moderation himself), the effect of tobacco on any 100 men is about as follows: On 20 per cent. a rank poison, and should never be used in any form, producing on such men neuralgic spasm of the heart, weak action, fainting, dizzy spells, confusion of mind, dyspepsia, etc., etc.; on 20 per cent.; nervousness, palpitation of the heart, giddiness, dyspepsia, etc,; on 20 per cent., dyspepsia and heartburn; and in 10 per cent., no evil and some goods effects.

His research and experiments prove that excess in tobacco produces thousands of cases of heart disease, makes multitudes of dyspeptics, causes many sudden deaths from Neuralgic Spasm and faintness of the heart (Angina Pectoris), produces cancer of the mouth, throat and tongue, extreme nervous exhaustion and bloodlessness of the brain and spine, cancer of the stomach and bowels and abcess of the liver.

ROGERS' ROYAL NERVINE is a peculiarly effective antidote to poisoning by nicotine, besides being a direct and distinct curative of those diseases produced by excess in tobacco. It has saved many a young cigarette smoker's life. Tobacco produces dyspepsia, R. R. N. cures it. Tobacco produces anaemina or bloodlessness of the brain, faint spells, giddiness on stooping, spasm of the heart, weak pulse, headache, neuralgia of the heart, etc., etc, ROGERS' ROYAL NERVINE cures or counteracts all of these.

If you are a heavy smoker, reader, and can't or won't quit, even with the cancer of Gen'l Grant, the Crown Prince of Germany and hundreds of others staring you in the face, at least use an antidote. It will do you no harm certainly, and may, very probably will, save you your life.

Feel your pulse and see if it is as strong, bounding and robust as it should be without tobacco.

CATARRH HAY FEVER CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

A NEW TREATMENT.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been discovered which permanently cures the most aggravated cases of these distressing diseases by a few simple applications made (two weeks apart) by the patient at home. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent free by A. H. DIXON & SON, 337 and 339 West King Street, Toronto, Canada.

AN IRON-CLAD TICKET.

A committee of three, consisting of Messrs. A. H. Hansom, W. A. Thrall and J. N. Abbott, has for some days past been considering at Chicago a new form of iron-clad excursion ticket.

The ticket differs from other iron-clad tickets in the "advice stub." This is a stub on which the party purchasing the ticket signs his or her name, as the case may be, at the time of purchase. This stub is sent by the first mail by the ticket agent selling the ticket to the depot ticket agent at the station to which the ticket is issued.

The holder of the ticket gives his name, the ticket agent brings out his advice stub with the signature obtained from the original purchaser covered up so that it cannot be seen, and the holder of the ticket is requested to sign. After he signs the ticket agent unfolds the stub, and, if the signatures are the same, the ticket is made good for the return trip on the train just about to leave. If the signatures are different the ticket is taken up by the agent and is of no value.

The Michigan Central has had great success with this ticket.

THE LOCAL BUDGET.

The Kerr Murray works are using natural gas.

Robert Wright has resigned his position at the Jenney works.

Lew F. Lombard, machinist at the Olds wheel works, is on the sick list.

The Pittsburg car shops have received a new order for building eighty-three box cars.

William Shaffer, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, is off duty on account of sickness.

Jackson Zimmerman, of White's wheel works, has been on the sick list for a few days.

L. G. Miller, of the Kerr Murray works, is at Huntington doing some work for the firm.

The finishing department at the Olds wheel works is closed down for a few days on account of repairs.

Henry Schomber, carpenter at East Pittsburg yards, cut his thumb yesterday with a hatchet while at work.

Walter A. Fensom, formerly, of the Fensom Elevator works at Toronto, Canada, has taken a position with the Jenney.

August Hilker, of the Kerr Murray works, has just completed the work of a gas plant at Delaware, Ohio, and returned home.

John Connors, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, who was injured Thanksgiving day by falling on the side walk, is still off duty from his injuries.

Julius Kock, of the Pennsylvania company, informs us that THE SENTINEL erred last evening in stating that his wife was dead. The lady whose death was chronicled was the wife of his brother.

The Pennsylvania people have a genuine freight blockade and have asked western connections to hold back a little. There are miles of cars at Pittsburg and east of there standing on side-tracks. It is thought that a few days will bring relief.

Nellie Huston, thirteen years old, living with her parents at Chicago, was run down and killed in that city Tuesday night by a south-bound Wabash passenger train. She was on her way home, and tried to cross the tracks in front of the train. She was horribly mangled.

Wm. F. Base, machinist at the Olds wheel works, while cleaning one of the rooms at that establishment, came across what he supposed was a keg of powder, but which was only loose emery. He looked in the open keg, however, and as his eyes lit on the stuff he became freightened and went out and got rid of all the matches in his pockets. He is still engaged in trying to determine what use the works have for gunpowder.

Holden Spink, a popular and well known conductor on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad, died from injuries last Tuesday night. Mr. Spink has been in the employ of the Grand Rapids and Indiana about seven years, and was held in high esteem by the officers of the company and all his associates. He resided in Grand Rapids but had no family or other relatives dependent upon him for support. His wife and only child died about three years ago.

Receiver Carrothers, of the American Midland railroad, has issued an order removing Mr. C. N. Haskell from the position of general manager of the road and Mr. Haskell is no longer connected with the line which he built. The same order announces the abolition of the office of superintendent, thus displacing T. B. Sargeant. The position of superintendent of motive power has been abolished and Wilbur Rogers, of Toledo, has been appointed to take the place of James A. Phelps as auditor. Charles T. Lewis, of Toledo, has been named as general counsel.

The proposition to donate $10,000 to the Wabash Railroad company in consideration of the company making connections with their main line in Logansport, Ind., was voted upon in that city yesterday. The proposition was carried by almost a unanimous vote, there being less than 100 votes in the negative.

CANNOT RECOVER LAND.

No Grounds For Mrs. Willhoite's Suit to Recover Indian Lands.

The death of John LaFontaine, grandson of Francis LaFonaine, the late and last chief of the Miami tribe of Indians, opens the history of a once-contemplated litigation by Mrs. Mary Willhoite, wife of Dr. Willhoite, of Fontana, Kan. Mrs. Willhoite's first husband was Louis LaFontaine, son of Chief LaFontaine, and her maiden name was Mary Bordeau.

She claims an interest in seven sections of land in Grant, Wabash, Miami and Cass counties, and she claims it as the heir of Louis LaFontaine. A gentleman who is conversant with the matter, and from whom this information is obtained, says that if she have any claim at all in any of these lands she must bring suit as the heir of John B. Richardville, and if she brings suit as the heir of Richardville, she will find the woods full of claimants on equally as tenable grounds as hers. Francis LaFontaine never had any interest in the lands to which Mrs. Willhoite lays claim, and if she be an heir at all she must be an heir of Francis LaFontaine. Anyhow, state and national litigation will bar any action she can bring. The late Rev. Father Julian Benoit, of Fort Wayne, was chosen executor of the LaFontaine estate, and John Roche, Esq., of Huntington, appointed a guardian of the minor LaFontaine heirs, by the Huntington circuit court. Mr. Roche has heard of no such suit, as several newspapers have mentioned.

Should Stretch Hemp.

ATOKI, A. T., Dec. 11.—At Rock Point, eighteen miles west of here, two cotton pickers shot and crippled for life young Lullie Jones, with whom they were working at the time. They proposed to young Jones that he should take care of the dogs while they robbed his brother, and when Jones refused they shot him. They were arrested.

Rheumatism

is undoubtedly caused by lactic acid in the blood. This acid attacks the fibrous tissues, and causes the pains and aches in the back, shoulders, knees, ankles, hips, and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

A Fly-Wheel on a High.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 11.—Early last evening a forty-ton fly-wheel at the Chesapeake nail works, burst and injured about a dozen of the three hundred persons employed in the establishment, who were either struck by flying fragments or caught in the debris; a man named Fisher received several wounds and his death is feared. Two other employes were severely hurt. The building was badly wrecked.

WATERY ARMS OF DEATH!

They Open to Receive a Mother and Her Three Children—A Heart-rending Scene.

PORT WASHINGTON, Wis., Dec. 12.—A terrible and peculiar drowning accident occurred yesterday, by which a mother and her three children were drowned at Saukville, on the Milwaukee river.

A six year old son of Claud Augustine went to the river bank and ventured out on the ice. It suddenly broke and he fell into the water. His mother heard his cries and rushed to his rescue. Frantically throwing herself into the icy waters she endeavored to save her drowning boy. In a few moments she was beyond her depth and drowning herself.

Her seventeen-year-old daughter, Augusta, heard the cries and hastened to the spot. Seeing her mother in the water she hastened to her rescue. The ice broke with her and she was thrown into the chilling torrent. Mother and daughter locked themselves together in a death struggle and sunk beneath the water and ice.

They were just disappearing when a four-year-old son of Mrs. Augustine, who had been with the sister, toddled out on the ice. With plaintive cries of "Mama, mama! I want you," he ran over the ice until he reached the hole in which his mother, his sister and his brother were buried.

The little fellow saw his mother and sister sink and threw himself as he supposed, into his mother's arms. In an instant he was carried beneath the ice. A man named Christian Nelson saw the tragedy, but was powerless to render any aid. He was on the rotten ice and broke in several times before he reached the spot where the family had been wiped out. When he finally got there they had disappeared. The body of Mrs. Augustine was recovered but the bodies of the children cannot be found.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Dec. 12.—Bert Scheller, champion wrestler of the northwest, and Harry Everet, of this city, engaged in a wrestling match in this city last night. CAPTAIN RAWLES' SUCCESSOR.

Lieutenant Leonard Will Be Tendered the Honors.

The resignation of Frank Rawles, as captain of the Rifles, was mentioned in THE SENTINEL recently. The official document releasing him from all connection with that body has been forwarded to Governor Alvin P. Hovey.

The captain leaves his company only because duty calls him elsewhere. He is now in the pension department at Washington. Captain Rawles has been identified with every interest of the young military from the first; it was he who was chosen leader; it was he who pressed the boys to a glorious victory at the state encampment at Evansville, on which occasion they were bowed to all along the line and acknowledged to be the crack company of Indiana; and it was Captain Rawles who was loved if not revered by every person in the company, from private to first lieutenant. He was steadfast through thick and thin, kind, obliging and courteous—the secret of his popularity. Captain Rawles was as much at home with officers of the staff as he was among his own company. While it is a source of regret to realize that he has severed his official connection with the Rifles, every member of the same will unite in conveying to him their sincerest expressions for future prosperity.

It is said that Captain Rawles has at his disposal the acceptance of the captaincy of a company at the capitol. He is not only capable but so thoroughly versed in military tactics that as a commanding officer he would soon win admiration and respect from the men whom he drilled and the approbation of officers of superior rank.

The Rifles will soon elect a successor. It will no doubt be Mr. Ivers Leonard, of Supt. C. D. Law's office, who has so creditably filled the place of first lieutenant in the company. He is a thorough, and faithful young man, punctual and well informed in military matters.

He has been loyal to the interest of the Rifles from the first. The general sentiment of the company is to choose Mr. Leonard as Captain Rawles' successor, a place he is honorably entitled to.

It is not known whether he would accept the honor. If he does the populst reputation of the Rifles will be maintained.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC STRIKE

May Be Settled To-day—If Not, the Outlook is Serious.

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 12.—The strike of the Cascade division of the Northern Pacific railroad has not been settled, though a conference was held yesterday between a committee of strikers and Supt. H. M. Powwels at Ellensburg. The men are confident of winning the battle which has been on since last Sunday.

Not a single freight train has moved in or out of Tacoma since the strike began. A large quantity of valuable bonded freight is piled up on the sidetracks for a distance of 253 miles. The strike may possibly be settled to-day, if not, the out-look will be serious.

THIEVES WITH BRASS.

They Make a Haul of the Valuable Metal at the Muncie Shops.

On Wednesday night thieves entered the Muncie shops and stole a lot of brass.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—For Indiana—Warmer, fair, southerly winds, much lower temperature by Friday night.

The subject of Dr. McGlynn, who is to lecture in this city next Wednesday evening, is "How to Abolish Poverty." The Ottawa Journal in speaking of the lecture and his theme says: "A large audience greeted him last evening. Dr. McGlynn is a fluent and delightful speaker. Outbursts of applause were frequent during the evening; a vein of delicious and irresistible humor cropped out often, and the audience laughed heartily."

Surrounded by His Family the Bookseller Passes Peacefully Away.

August F. Siemon, the senior member of the firm of Siemon & Bro., died at 10 o'clock this morning.

This announcement was received on the streets to-day with surprise and universal sorrow.

The illness of Mr. Siemon for four months past has caused apprehension on the part of the attending physicians, Drs. A. J. Lembach, J. W. McCausland and A. P. Buchman, and not later than two weeks ago these professional gentlemen held a consultation, then for the first time expressing their grave doubts of his recovery to the family; but of this the public little knew. So when the doors of the large establishment of Siemon Bros. were dressed with crepe today the effect was strikingly sad.

Sometime last August Mr. Siemon was affected with a slight debility, which grew upon him, notwithstanding the fact that he was known as being an active, sturdy and healthy man in his growing old age.

His trouble developed into a malady, causing him, much against his inclination, to seek the bed. His illness continued to grow upon him, but on one occasion he rallied enough to visit his store, at which time a SENTINEL reporter was accosted with the usual outburst of good nature that was so peculiarly characteristic of himself—one among many.

Again compelled to succumb to the inevitable hold of his affliction, Mr. Siemon was again confined to his room and as destiny has willed, he never left it again.

In the demise of Mr. Siemon the community is bereft of a most noble character. As a fellow-citizen, whose interests were in no wise selfish, but who always lent by his purse and good will much encouragement in charitable and other ways, he was known far and near.

The deceased had eighteen brothers and sisters, of which are Rudolph, Carl F., sr., Mrs. Christian Tresselt, Mrs. Charles Tresselt, Mrs. Matilda Schwegmann and Mrs. Both, of this city, and five brothers in Germany.

Mr. Siemon was worth at least $50,000. He did not believe in insurance and therefore carried no policy.

The funeral will occur Sunday afternoon from St. Paul Lutheran church. Further announcement will be made.

The following is an accurate biography of his life;

A. F. Siemon, founder of the old and widely known house of Siemon & Brother, dealers in books and stationery, was born in Saxony, Germany, at the city of Ziesar, September 18, 1821. His father, August Ferdinand Siemon, a native of Saxony, was a prominent man, a merchant at Ziesar and postmaster and mayor of the city for a number of years. He died about 1860. His wife, whose maiden name was Caroline Grams, died in 1821, eight days after the birth of her son. Mr. Siemon received a good education in his native town, completing it at the college of Brandenburg. In 1819 he came to America and traveled directly to Fort Wayne, intending to study at Concordia college. After an attendance there of about a year, he entered the employ of Towley & Freeman, as a clerk, and subsequently held similar positions with W. T. Abbott and Towley & Brother. He founded his present business in 1855, and in 1861 admitted his brother Rudolph, as a partner when the firm became known as Siemon & Bro. In 1885 the interest of Rudolph was transferred to Mr. A. F. Siemon and the two sons Henry and Herman, were admitted as partners.

At their present place of business, 50 Calhoun street, they have one of the most commodious store rooms in the city, occupying the entire four floors of the building, which is in dimensions 20x170 feet, and they carry a complete stock of books, stationery, wall paper, pictures and frames, doing an annual average business of $50,000 to $60,000.

Mr. Siemon was one of the prominent men of Fort Wayne, a veteran in business and highly esteemed in all his relations with society. He was a devoted member of St. Paul's Lutheran church up to the time of his death and was trustee of the congregation for five years. He was married in 1854 to Lisetta Berning, of Hanover, Germany, who died in 1859, leaving two sons—Prof. Otto Siemon, of Concordia college, and Henry Siemon, of the firm. In 1861 he was married to Helen A. Strunk, who was born in Fort Wayne. By his last wife are three children—Herman T., of the firm; August W., of the Jacobs shoe store, and Miss Tillie Siemon.

HARRISON AND THE CATHOLICS

They Claim He Discriminates Against Them in His Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The senate committee on Indian affairs has not concluded consideration of the nomination of Thomas J. Morgan to be commissioner of Indian affairs, or Mr. Dorchester, superintendent of Indian schools.

A printed protest against his confirmation has been placed in the hands of individual senators on behalf of the Catholic church, claiming that they have discriminated against Catholics in the matter of appointments and removals.

A number of Grand Army posts also have protested against the confirmation of Morgan on the ground that his army record was bad. The committee on Indian affairs at the meeting to-day postponed action on these nominations till next week. The committee has not formally received protests against confirmation, but it is understood that it will receive them.

The president to-day sent to the senate the nomination of Cyrus J. Frey, of South Dakota, to be marshal of the United States for the district of South Dakota, also a number of recess nominations, including Joel B. Erhardt, collector of customs at New York, and David W. McClung, collector of internal revenue of the first Ohio district.

CONGRESS.

In the house this morning, immediately after the reading of the journal, Mr. Butterworth offered a resolution setting forth the charges of complicity in the ballot box fraud made in the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette against members of the senate and house, and providing for the appointment by the speaker of a committee of five to investigate these charges. His resolution was adopted.

The special committee appointed to investigate the defalcation in the sergeant-at-arms' office made a partial report to the house, giving a detailed statement of the condition of the office December 5. The shortage is stated at $70,708.06. The committee believe many notes were forged to cover previous defalcations, and severely condemn the manner in which the sergeant-at-arms conducted the affairs of his office.

At 2 o'clock the house adjourned until Monday.

At 1:35 p. m., the senate adjourned until Monday.

GENERAL GRANT.

Jefferson Davis' Opinion of the Hero of Appomattox.

BOSTON, Dec. 12.—When General Grant was dying at McGregor, the Boston Globe instructed its New Orleans correspondent to interview Jefferson Davis. Mr. Davis was not seen personally, but a few days later penned the following letter:

My Dear Sir:

Your request on behalf of a Boston journalist to prepare a criticism of General Grant's military career cannot be complied with for the following reasons:

First—General Grant is dying.

Second—Though he invaded our country with ruthless, it was with an open hand, and, as far as I know, abetted neither arson nor pillage, and since the war, I believe, has shown no malignity to confederates, either of the military or civil service. Therefore, instead of seeking to disturb the quiet of his closing hours, I would, if it were in my power, contribute to the peace of his mind and comfort of his body.

Signed: JEFFERSON DAVIS.

A CLOUD BURST!

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—About half past 10 last night a cloud burst occurred in a mountain canon near Boulder Creek, Santa Cruz county, and a flood of water many feet high came roaring down the narrow valley. It carried along whole trees and logs and nothing stood before it.

Five houses, with their sleeping occupants, were swept away like egg shells. The people in the houses were in bed at the time and were taken completely by surprise. The first they knew of the disaster was when their houses were struck and carried away with everything else.

Joe Easton and his wife occupied one of the houses. They were in bed at the time. The people on the banks saw them swept down the torrent, clasped in each other's arms. The men ran down the stream in the hope of saving them. A quarter of a mile below the spot where the cottage had stood a cry for help was heard, and Mrs. Easton was found clinging to the bank. She had been struck by the drifting logs as she was swept down the stream. She was badly bruised, and had been completely stripped of her night clothes. She is nearly fifty years years old, and the shock may prove fatal, but it is believed she will recover.

She said that as she and her husband were swept down together a great log struck him and separated them. She did not see him again. Easton's body was found in a pile of drift, about a half mile down the stream.

A man and wife named Francis, who lived in one of the other cottages, had a narrow escape. When they realized their danger the water was rushing past their house six feet deep. They saw that the house would not stand, and sprang through a window into the water. After great exertions they succeeded in reaching the bank. There were several other narrow escapes, but although all in the house were badly bruised, no one except Easton was lost.

A HOOSIER CYCLONE.

CAMBRIDGE CITY, Ind., Dec. 12.—Tuesday night a cyclone, accompanied with rain in torrents and vivid lightning, visited this vicinity. It covered an area of one-half by four miles and came from the southwest. John Vicey's barn was unroofed, as were also the residence and barn of Cyrus Coffin. He was in an out house, which was carried some distance. He extricated himself and saved his life by clinging to a tree. Sam Watson's two-story house and out buildings are badly wrecked. The velocity of the wind was such as to drive a board through the siding of the Watson residence.

UNEARTHED TREASURE.

A Pot of Gold Dust Found After Being Buried Forty Years.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Dec. 12.—A. R. and P. E. Torey, of Charleston, S. C., yesterday unearthed a copper pot containing $6,000 worth of gold dust. It was buried there by Henry Hopkins, an uncle, who brought it back from California with him in 1846. He was attacked by thieves in Plattsmouth, but managed to bury the dust, but he afterward disappeared and is supposed to have been murdered.

His brother came to Plattsmouth in 1866 and made a vain search for the treasure. The Torey brothers recently found a letter among their mother's effects letters about the burial of the gold and came to Plattsmouth about two week's ago.

IS DeVAUX A DOCTOR?

Yesterday Deputy County Clerk J. J. Kern issued to Edward F. DeVaux a license to practice medicine in Allen county and the applicant hastened immediately to prepare an office in Miller's drug store on Lafayette street.

The applicant represented that by reason of his attendance at lectures in the Fort Wayne Medical college he was entitled to practice, under the "three year law" and he exhibited a matriculation ticket.

This was regular enough so long as witnesses were at hand to make affidavit. These DeVaux soon found in the persons of Louis W. Moring and Henry Galland.

Now comes the startling disclosure from Dr. C. B. Stemen, who has been dean of the Medical college for ten years past, and also from Prof. W. W. Barnett, of the same institution, that DeVaux paid $5 and was given a matriculation ticket; that he did not attend the lectures and that the young man is no more eligible to a physician's certificate than THE SENTINEL reporter would be.

DeVaux was an applicant for a license to practice medicine, surgery and obstetrics under the provisions of an act entitled, "An act regulating the practice of medicine, surgery and obsetrics, etc.," approved April 11, 1885, which makes it necessary to have either practiced medicine, surgery and obstetrics in the state of Indiana three years or attended a full course of lectures at a reputable medical college. Devaux claims to have attended lectures in the fall of 1880.

He is credited with being a clever and honest young man.

He is evidently misled and ignorant, or is practicing a dangerous game. He will be asked to explain.

GATHERING HIS NEW FLOCK.

The purpose is to begin active arrangements for the erection in early spring of a new church, probably to be located at the corner of DeWald and Webster streets, where property was recently purchased.

John Kelley, of East Wayne street, arrested by Officer Wahrenburg, on Wayne street.

The senatorial fight in Ohio grows interesting.

The deadlock in the Montana legislature continues.

Yesterday was the seventy-third anniversary of Indiana's admission into the union.

In the past five days Colonel Zollinger, at Indianapolis, has paid 10,008 pensioners the sum of $1,379,889.14.

Attorney Forrest, of the Cronin murder case, is long winded. The delivery of his speech occupied three and a half days.

The federal assembly has elected M. Louis Ruchonnet, of the canton of Vaud, president, and Dr. E. Welti, of the canton of Aargau, vice president of the republic of Switzerland for the year 1890.

The Australian ballot system is making sure progress in this country. Massachusetts was the first state to adopt it, Connecticut the second, Minnesota next, Little Rhody fourth in order. Other states are considering its merits.

The confederation of the Farmers' union and K. of L. order brings nearly three millions of men into one organization. If other bodies of organized labor, to which overtures have been made, shall join them, their numbers will be augmented another half million.

Indiana to-day is the sixth state in the Union in size, population and natural wealth; the first in public school facilities; the first in amount of wheat produced; the first in natural gas area; fifth in the production of bituminous coal, and it has the best building stone in the world, and produces more than any of the other forty-two states except four.

With the death and burial of Jefferson Davis, the ex-president of the so-called southern confederacy, disappears to a great extent, the southern question in politics. The lapse of over a quarter of a century since the close of the war and the death of most of the great leaders in that memorable struggle in the south, should break down the barriers of sectional hate engendered by it.

BARRETT LEAVES THE STAGE.

His Throat Malady Compels Him to Retire, Perhaps Permanently.

The Cleveland Plain-Dealer of Sunday says: "Lawrence Barrett canceled his engagement at the Euclid Avenue opera house this week on the imperative order of his physician. The swelling in his neck, which was noticeable when he was here before, has greatly enlarged. It is said to be due to something in the nature of tumors in the glands of the throat, brought on by puffing out his neck by holding his breath in acting certain roles. It is an affection which does not yield to any treatment except the knife, and the chance of recovery from such an operation is said to be one in 100. Therefore, it may be that his retiring from the stage is permanent. During the past fortnight he played in Washington, and it was with great difficulty that he finished the last week."

An Annual Election of Officers Held Last Night.

Fort Wayne Council Royal and Select Masons elected the following officers last evening:

Grand Master—Levi Griffith.

Deputy Grand Master—James M. Henry.

Principal Conductor of Works—Chas. W. Cook.

Captain of Guards—George W. Spencer.

Treasurer—Joe L. Gruber.

Recorder—Allan H. Dougall.

Sentinel and Steward—M. Teagarden.

The installation will take place January 8, 1890, in conjunction with the Chapter installation.

Amusements.

Imre Kiralfy's reputation for putting on good speciaculars was substantially exemplified in the elaborate production of "Lagardere" at the Temple last night. Of the play, the scenic features, and the costumes there can be but one decision—they meet favor with the artistic and popular taste. The ballets are original and beyond reasonable limit of criticism. The scenes are numerous, including several realistic works of art. Maurice F. Drew, as "Lagardere, the Hunchback of Paris," in the leading role, acted his part well and was ably supported. Should this attraction again favor Fort Wayne with a visit, another large audience will be assured.

BOSTONIAN PHILOSOPHY.

The New Orleans Picayune declares that the Bostonian is a philosopher from the cradle.

A night or two ago a Boston street matron had occasion to reprove her little boy, aged six and a half years—for some unusually mischevious nonsense.

"I'm afraid," she said, "that you will not go to heaven."

"I'm sorry," said the young criminal, "but I've been to the circus and a party this week, don't you know, and of course one can't take in everything."

For a long time past this youthful thinker has been putting pennies in a toy savings bank for the benefit of the little negro children of the Congo basin. And the other day his mother caught him in the act of painting his baby sister black all over with ladies' shoe polish. He was just putting on the final touches when the mater familias entered.

Said he: "Mamma, we have given so much money to the black people that I thought we might as well keep it in the family. So I have fixed up the kid to suit. Put a nickel in the slot and hear it squeal.

A YOUNG ELDER.

One day, a good many years ago, a young elder, making his first appearance in the Glasgow Presbytery modestly sat down on the very edge of a bench near the door. By and by the minister, who had been sitting on the other end, rose, and the young elder was just falling off, when the door opened and Doctor Gillan, of Inchinnan, entered, and catching him in his arms, said, with his usual readiness, -

"Sir, when you come to this place, you must try and stick to the forms of the church."

The Mayor's Message—May we be pardoned for requesting the mayor to incorporate in his next message the fact that many of our most prominent citizens have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia and kindred complaints by Salvation Oil, and to recommend this valuable medicine.

GAVE HIMSELF UP.

A Fugitive Criminal From Scotland Confesses His Crime.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 11.—A man giving the name of Thomas Souter, solicitor, Blairgowen, Scotland, appeared at the city jail last evening, and gave himself up, stating that he was an absconder from Scotland. According to his story, he was solicitor for several local bodies in the town of Blairgowen, and by negligence in attending to business and want of method, he became short in his accounts.

Fearing exposure and disgrace he fled to this country and went to San Francisco and had been there ever since until he came here. His money is all gone and for several nights he wandered about the street having no place to rest. As far as he knows no warrant has been issued for his arrest, but if there has he is ready to go back to Scotland. He was given a comfortable cell in the jail. He is about forty years of age.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

TOBACCO-HEART.

According to a recent paper read by Prof. Adolph Zieber before the German Medical congress, the excessive use of tobacco produces certain diseases as sure as a hot iron will produce a burn.

According to Dr. Zieber, who is not an anti-tobacco crank (using the weed in moderation himself), the effect of tobacco on any 100 men is about as follows: On 30 per cent. a rank poison, and should never be used in any form, producing on such men neuralgic spasm of the heart, weak action, fainting, dizzy spells, confusion of mind, dyspepsia, etc., etc.; on 50 per cent., nervousness, palpitation of the heart, giddiness, dyspepsia, etc.; on 20 per cent., dyspepsia and heartburn; and in 10 per cent., no evil and some goods effects.

His research and experiments prove that excess in tobacco produces thousands of cases of heart disease, makes multitudes of dyspeptics, causes many sudden deaths from Neuralgic Spasm and fulness of the heart (Angina Pectoris), produces cancer of the mouth, throat and tongue, extreme nervous exhaustion and bloodlessness of the brain and spine, cancer of the stomach and bowels and ulcers of the liver.

ROGERS' ROYAL NERVINE is a peculiarly effective antidote to poisoning by nicotine, besides being a direct and distinct curative of those diseases produced by excess in tobacco. It has saved many a young cigarette smoker's life. Tobacco produces dyspepsia, R. R. N. cures it. Tobacco produces anaemia or bloodlessness of the brain, faint spells, giddiness on stooping, spasm of the heart, weak pulse, headache, neuralgia of the heart, etc., etc. ROGERS' ROYAL NERVINE cures or counteracts all of these.

If you are a heavy smoker, reader, and can't or won't quit, even with the cancer of Gen'l Grant, the Crown Prince of Germany and hundreds of others staring you in the face, at least use an antidote. It will do you no harm certainly, and may, very probably will, save your life.

Feel your pulse and see if it is as strong, bounding and robust as it should be without tobacco.

A NEW TREATMENT.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been discovered which permanently cures the most aggravated cases of these distressing diseases by a few simple applications made (two weeks apart) by the patient at home. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent free by A. H. Dixon & Son, 337 and 339 West King Street, Toronto, Canada.

AN IRON-CLAD TICKET.

A committee of three, consisting of Messrs. A. H. Hansom, W. A. Thrall and J. N. Abbott, has for some days past been considering at Chicago a new form of iron-clad excursion ticket.

The ticket differs from other iron-clad tickets in the "advice stub." This is a stub on which the party purchasing the ticket signs his or her name, as the case may be, at the time of purchase. This stub is sent by the first mail by the ticket agent selling the ticket to the depot ticket agent at the station to which the ticket is issued.

The holder of the ticket gives his name, the ticket agent brings out his advice stub with the signature obtained from the original purchaser covered up so that it cannot be seen, and the holder of the ticket is requested to sign. After he signs the ticket agent unfolds the stub, and, if the signatures are the same, the ticket is made good for the return trip on the train just about to leave. If the signatures are different the ticket is taken up by the agent and is of no value.

The Michigan Central has had great success with this ticket.

THE LOCAL BUDGET.

The Kerr Murray works are using natural gas.

Robert Wright has resigned his position at the Jenney works.

Lew F. Lombard, machinist at the Olds wheel works, is on the sick list.

The Pittsburg car shops have received a new order for building eighty-three box cars.

William Shaffer, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, is off duty on account of sickness.

Jackson Zimmerman, of White's wheel works, has been on the sick list for a few days.

L. G. Miller, of the Kerr Murray works, is at Huntington doing some work for the firm.

The finishing department at the Olds wheel works is closed down for a few days on account of repairs.

Henry Schomber, carpenter at East Pittsburg yards, cut his thumb yesterday with a hatchet while at work.

Walter A. Fensom, formerly, of the Fensom Elevator works at Toronto, Canada, has taken a position with the Jenney.

August Hilker, of the Kerr Murray works, has just completed the work of a gas plant at Delaware, Ohio, and returned home.

John Connors, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, who was injured Thanksgiving day by falling on the side walk, is still off duty from his injuries.

Julius Kook, of the Pennsylvania company, informs us that THE SENTINEL erred last evening in stating that his wife was dead. The lady whose death was chronicled was the wife of his brother.

The Pennsylvania people have a genuine freight blockade and have asked western connections to hold back a little. There are miles of cars at Pittsburg and east of there standing on side-tracks. It is thought that a few days will bring relief.

Nellie Huston, thirteen years old, living with her parents at Chicago, was run down and killed in that city Tuesday night by a south-bound Wabash passenger train. She was on her way home, and tried to cross the tracks in front of the train. She was horribly mangled.

Wm. F. Baso, machinist at the Olds wheel works, while cleaning one of the rooms at that establishment, came across what he supposed was a keg of powder, but which was only loose emery. He looked in the open keg, however, and as his eyes lit on the stuff he became frightened and went out and got rid of all the matches in his pockets. He is still engaged in trying to determine what use the works have for gunpowder.

Holden Spink, a popular and well known conductor on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad, died from injuries last Tuesday night. Mr. Spink has been in the employ of the Grand Rapids and Indiana about seven years, and was held in high esteem by the officers of the company and all his associates. He resided in Grand Rapids but had no family or other relatives dependent upon him for support. His wife and only child died about three years ago.

Receiver Carrothers, of the American Midland railroad, has issued an order removing Mr. C. N. Haskell from the position of general manager of the road and Mr. Haskell is no longer connected with the line which he built. The same order announces the abolition of the office of superintendent, thus displacing T. B. Sargeant. The position of superintendent of motive power has been abolished and Wilbur Rogers, of Toledo, has been appointed to take the place of James A. Phelps as auditor. Charles T. Lewis, of Toledo, has been named as general counsel.

The proposition to donate $10,000 to the Wabash Railroad company in consideration of the company making connections with their main line in Logansport, Ind., was voted upon in that city yesterday. The proposition was carried by almost a unanimous vote, there being less than 100 votes in the negative.

CANNOT RECOVER LAND.

No Grounds For Mrs. Willhoite's Suit to Recover Indian Lands.

The death of John LaFontaine, grandson of Francis LaFontaine, the late and last chief of the Miami tribe of Indians, opens the history of a once-contemplated litigation by Mrs. Mary Willhoite, wife of Dr. Willhoite, of Fontana, Kan. Mrs. Willhoite's first husband was Louis LaFontaine, son of Chief LaFontaine, and her maiden name was Mary Bordeau.

She claims an interest in seven sections of land in Grant, Wabash, Miami and Cass counties, and she claims it as the heir of Louis LaFontaine. A gentleman who is conversant with the matter, and from whom this information is obtained, says that if she have any claim at all in any of these lands she must bring suit as the heir of John B. Richardville, and if she brings suit as the heir of Richardville, she will find the woods full of claimants on equally as tenable grounds as hers. Francis LaFontaine never had any interest in the lands to which Mrs. Willhoite lays claim, and if she be an heir at all she must be an heir of Francis LaFontaine. Anyhow, state and national litigation will bar any action she can bring. The late Rev. Father Julian Benoit, of Fort Wayne, was chosen executor of the LaFontaine estate, and John Roche, Esq., of Huntington, appointed a guardian of the minor LaFontaine heirs, by the Huntington circuit court. Mr. Roche has heard of no such suit, as several newspapers have mentioned.

Should Stretch Hemp.

ATOKI, A. T., Dec. 11.—At Rock Point, sighteen miles west of here, two cotton pickers shot and crippled for life young Lullie Jones, with whom they were working at the time. They proposed to young Jones that he should take care of the dogs while they robbed his brother, and when Jones refused they shot him. They were arrested.

Rheumatism

is undoubtedly caused by lactic acid in the blood. This acid attacks the fibrous tissues, and causes the pains and aches in the back, shoulders, knees, ankles, hips, and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 11.—Early last evening a forty-ton fly-wheel at the Chesapeake nail works, burst and injured about a dozen of the three hundred persons employed in the establishment, who were either struck by flying fragments or caught in the debris; a man named Fisher received several wounds and his death is feared. Two other employes were severely hurt. The building was badly wrecked.
